1. Introduction

1.1. Skill Development Initiative Scheme (SDIS)

Directorate General of Employment & Training (DGE&T), Ministry of Labour & Employment, Government of India launched “Skill Development Initiative (SDI)” as a 100% Centrally Sponsored Plan Scheme on 22nd May 2007 to develop skilled manpower for the industry. The scheme provides training through registered Vocational Training Providers (VTPs) and certification of skills acquired training through VTPs and informally. The assessment of skills is carried out by Assessing Bodies and certification is provided by National Council for Vocational Training (NCVT).

1.2. About Assessment in SDIS

The assessment process under SDI Scheme aims to test and certify the competency of the persons who seek certification of their skills acquired informally or the persons who have been trained at the registered VTPs. The assessment is carried out by Assessing Bodies who are empanelled by DGE&T. The competency assessment of the candidate is being done by independent Assessing Bodies (AB) which are not involved in training delivery, to ensure an impartial assessment.

The main objective of assessment and certification is to measure the competency of the trained youth to perform the tasks required in the work environment by gathering evidence of performance and evaluate against agreed criteria. The process for assessing the skills should be valid, authentic, current, and reliable with proper documentation to remove any subjectivity or ambiguity in the assessment.

In the assessment process of SDIS, identification of competency, ways to measure the competency and deciding on the type of evidence that has to be collected are the responsibility of the Assessing bodies whereas administering the assessment and collecting the evidence and reporting the results are the responsibility of the assessors. The assessments are carried out in testing centres, which are predominantly the training centres where the candidates are trained. In case of direct assessments, the assessments may happen in testing centre registered by the Assessing Bodies.
